Stephen Pierce Eden HS Girls Head Coach

Stephen Pierce is the head varsity coach of the nationally-ranked Eden Lady Raiders and Head Master Coach of Niagara Frontier Volleyball club. He has presented at the New York State Coaching Clinics numerous times. He worked extensively with many national and international volleyball giants, including former US National women's coach Lang Ping, USA Volleyball Youth Development Director John Kessel, legendary HS coach Sally Kus, and UNC coach Joe Sagula. He has coached high school for 20 years, amassing over 600 wins, 14 sectional titles, and 7 state titles. His teams have been nationally ranked on prepvolleyball.com, placing as high as 16th in the nation. At the Junior Olympic level, he has twice coached teams to a top ten finish at USA Nationals. He has coached numerous high school All-Americans, USA Junior Olympic All-Americans, several Gatorade Player of the Year winners and finalists, and All State Team members. Many of his former players have gone on to compete at the collegiate level, including schools like UB, UNC(2), Edinboro, Kent St., Siena, Albany, Mercyhurst, Stony Brook and Georgia. Last year, Pierce was named PrepVolleyball.com's National Coach of the Year in honor of his team capturing their record-breaking 8th state championship.

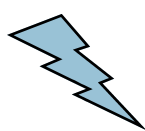

Robert Pierce Eden HS Boys Head Coach

A graduate of the legendary Eden program, Robert was a scholarship player at Penn State, where he was a 2 time All-American and still holds the record for most digs and aces. He was selected 3 times to compete in the United States Olympic Festival, and played professionally for 5 years in Switzerland and on the Pro Beach Tour in Europe. He is a 4 time gold medal winner of the Empire State Games. In his 14 years as Eden Varsity Head Coach, Robert's teams have produced 19 All-WNY players, and captured 12 Class B Sectional Championships and 7 State titles. Robert also directs the Eden Mizuno VBC, where he has helped place over 80 players in Division I, II, and III programs over the last 12 years.

Tom Weislo Canisius High School

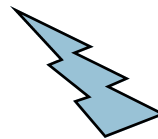

Tom is a United States Volleyball Association CAP level II certified coach who was an assistant coach for the 2000 United States Men's Junior National Team, the 2002 United States Boys Youth National Team, the 2010 US Youth Continental Team, as well as a current lead evaluator for the USA Volleyball High Performance Program. Tom was Head Coach of the Western Region Scholastic Men's Volleyball Team that captured Empire State Games gold medals in 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003. He returned to the Scholastic Men's Team in 2006 and guided them to their 11th straight gold medal. He has coached at the collegiate level at Buffalo State, and has extensive coaching experience at the high school and club levels. Tom has guided Canisius to eight consecutive Msgr. Martin Championships and has produced numerous All-WNY players. His club teams have won numerous tournaments and are nationally ranked, including two Top-5 finishes in the Open Division at USA Junior Nationals. Tom is co-director of the Eden Mizuno VBC.
